

A duck begins
in an egg.

Growing up Duck

After 28 days it
pecks it's way out of the shell.

The duckling can stand
up and run around soon
after hatching.

The duckling eats seeds, plants, and insects.

After a few weeks the fluffy feathers are replaced by long stiff feathers.

When the duck is a few years old it finds a partner and has it's own ducklings!