

Thank you for downloading this unit , I hope you find it useful! I created these lessons to homeschool my own children, pulling inspiration and ideas from many different sources. Overall I hope these units will give my preschoolers a solid foundation in God's Word, while also teaching basic early learning skills. The Bible verses featured are from the book,

For the craft this week, you will need to print out the next 2 pages. Cut the first one to open like a door and glue/ tape it on top of the sheet that follows. The end result should have a door that opens up with the answer. Your child can color the door, color the image of Jesus & trace the word Jesus. Overall, use this time as an opportunity to focus on the meaning of the verse and Jesus being the door to TRUTH and LIFE!

Who is the way,
the truth,
and the life?

said to him, I am the way,
