Why I Offer the Home Version for Free...

When I began creating printables years ago, I felt very convicted to keep a vast majority of those printables FREE in order to help other families who had very tight budgets. When I did begin creating bundles and products to sell, I still held strong to this conviction. I always try to offer the base materials of any units I create for free while also offering a bundled option with extras for those who can afford it and would like to support our family through your purchase.

God's word is powerful and teaching it to our young ones in a fun and meaningful way is priceless. It is my prayer that the free version of Raising Lil' Rock Stars blesses families who use it.

God Bless,
Carisa

A is for Attitude

Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus. Philippians 2:5-8

Jesus had a loving attitude. He loved others more than he loved himself. When Jesus lived on earth he served others and did very nice things for many people. He helped many people and shared his loving attitude with others.

One of the ways you can show love to others through your attitude is by sharing your toys with a smile! In the picture you can see the little boy sharing his teddy bear with a new friend. Is his attitude loving and kind?

Do you have a loving attitude towards others?

When a friend wants to play with you,

how can you show a loving attitude?

What do you need to ask God to help you with?

Are you struggling with your attitude at all?

Philippians 2:1-11

Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus. Philippians 2:1-11

1 If you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any fellowship with the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, 2 then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and purpose. 3 Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. 4 Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others. 5 Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: 6 Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, 7 but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. 8 And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death— even death on a cross! 9 Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, 10 that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, 11 and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

D is for Directs

I am the Lord your God, who teaches you what is best for you, who directs you in the way you should go. Isaiah 48:17b

Have you ever been lost? It's scary, isn't it? Sometimes when we get lost, we can look back and see where we missed the directions somewhere. If only we had paid attention, we wouldn't have gotten lost!

God gives us clear commands and directs our paths. We are happier and more joyful when we follow God's loving guidance in our life.

This little boy is pretending to be a pirate on the sea. How do you think he knows where he is going? Do you think he might have a map to direct his path? What will happen if he decides not to follow his map? That's right! He might get lost.

Always remember that God gives you direction through His Word. He teaches you the way and is with you the entire time!

Isaiah 48:12-22 NIV

I am the Lord your God, who teaches you what is best for you, who directs you in the way you should go. Isaiah 48:17b

Israel Freed

¹² “Listen to me, Jacob, Israel, whom I have called: I am he; I am the first and I am the last. ¹³ My own hand laid the foundations of the earth, and my right hand spread out the heavens; when I summon them, they all stand up together. ¹⁴ “Come together, all of you, and listen: Which of the idols has foretold these things? The LORD’s chosen ally will carry out his purpose against Babylon; his arm will be against the Babylonians.^[a] ¹⁵ I, even I, have spoken; yes, I have called him. I will bring him, and he will succeed in his mission. ¹⁶ “Come near me and listen to this: “From the first announcement I have not spoken in secret; at the time it happens, I am there.” And now the Sovereign LORD has sent me, endowed with his Spirit. ¹⁷ This is what the LORD says—your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: “I am the LORD your God, who teaches you what is best for you, who directs you in the way you should go. ¹⁸ If only you had paid attention to my commands, your peace would have been like a river, your well-being like the waves of the sea. ¹⁹ Your descendants would have been like the sand, your children like its numberless grains; their name would never be blotted out nor destroyed from before me.” ²⁰ Leave Babylon, flee from the Babylonians! Announce this with shouts of joy and proclaim it. Send it out to the ends of the earth; say, “The LORD has redeemed his servant Jacob.” ²¹ They did not thirst when he led them through the deserts; he made water flow for them from the rock; he split the rock and water gushed out. ²² “There is no peace,” says the LORD, “for the wicked.”
