Why I Offer the Home Version for Free...

When I began creating printables years ago, I felt very convicted to keep a vast majority of those printables FREE in order to help other families who had very tight budgets. When I did begin creating bundles and products to sell, I still held strong to this conviction. I always try to offer the base materials of any units I create for free while also offering a bundled option with extras for those who can afford it and would like to support our family through your purchase.

God's word is powerful and teaching it to our young ones in a fun and meaningful way is priceless. It is my prayer that the free version of Raising Lil' Rock Stars blesses families who use it.

God Bless,
Carisa

A is for Attitude

Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus. Philippians 2:5-8

Jesus had a loving attitude. He loved others more than he loved himself. When Jesus lived on earth he served others and did very nice things for many people. He helped many people and shared his loving attitude with others.

One of the ways you can show love to others through your attitude is by sharing your toys with a friend. In the picture you can see the little boy sharing his teddy bear with a new friend. Is his attitude loving and kind?

Do you have a loving attitude towards others?

When a friend wants to play with you,

how can you show a loving attitude?

What do you need to ask God to help you with?

Are you struggling with your attitude at all?

Philippians 2:1-11

Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus. Philippians 2:1-11

1 If you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any fellowship with the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, 2 then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and purpose. 3 Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. 4 Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others. 5 Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: 6 Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, 7 but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. 8 And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death— even death on a cross! 9 Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, 10 that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, 11 and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Page 2 ~ It is important to know the context of the verse you are teaching, on page 2 you will find the verses surrounding the key verse so you can read ahead of time to help you be prepared. This page is for the teacher to use alone, or if you have an advanced child you could use it together. If you are using it with a child, try to use a real Bible to look it up together to get practice finding books and verses!

Philippians 2:1-11

Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus. Philippians 2:1-11

1. If you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any fellowship with the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, 2. then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and purpose. 3. Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. 4. Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others. 5. Your attitude should be that of Christ Jesus, 6. who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, 7. but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. 8. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death— even death on a cross! 9. Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, 10. so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, 11. and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Lesson Plan Idea

© www.1plus1plus1equals1.com

When using these verses with your own child at home here are some ideas, but please adapt to your needs!

Day 1

- Display verse {page 3} somewhere in your homeschool classroom
- Read story {page 1} and show picture either from page 3 or page 4
- Color {page 6}

Day 2

- Read story again {if child wants to} or just discuss verse and meaning
- Make bracelet {page 7}

Day 3

- Read story again {if child wants to} or just discuss verse and meaning
- Do something creative with the blank letter A page {page 5} see many ideas here

Day 4

- Read story or just discuss
- Trace letters on page 7, color also if child likes coloring, and put it in your mini book {use a 4x6 photo album, or laminate and add to a metal ring.}

Wrap Up ~ add creative letter page {pg 5}, coloring page {pg 6}, and main poster {pg 3} to a notebook so child can flip back through and have a keepsake. If you have space, take the display circle {pg 7}, or the triangular banner {pg 8} and make an ABC wall to add to each time you complete a new letter!

I is for imitate

Dear friend, do not imitate what is evil but what is good.

3 John 1:11a

Do you know what it means to imitate? If I smile, how can you imitate me? Right! You can smile too! Imitating means to copy and do the same.

Jesus teaches a lot in the Bible and he tells us to imitate him. We should try to be like Jesus in every way we can, because he is good.

This little girl is imitating her mom. She saw her mom be kind to someone who was sick. Her mom brought her sick friend a meal and some flowers. When the little girl's friend was sick, she wanted to imitate her mom's kind actions and do the same!

When you are looking for someone to imitate, be sure you are looking to Jesus and others who love Jesus.

How can you imitate Jesus?

3 John 1^{NIV}

Dear friend, do not imitate what is evil but what is good.

3 John 1:11a

¹ The elder, To my dear friend Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

² Dear friend, I pray that you may enjoy good health and that all may go well with you, even as your soul is getting along well. ³ It gave me great joy when some believers came and testified about your faithfulness to the truth, telling how you continue to walk in it. ⁴ I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth.

⁵ Dear friend, you are faithful in what you are doing for the brothers and sisters, ⁶ even though they are strangers to you. ⁶ They have told the church about your love. Please send them on their way in a manner that honors God. ⁷ It was for the sake of the Name that they went out, receiving no help from the pagans. ⁸ We ought therefore to show hospitality to such people so that we may work together for the truth.

⁹ I wrote to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first, will not welcome us. ¹⁰ So when I come, I will call attention to what he is doing, spreading malicious nonsense about us. Not satisfied with that, he even refuses to welcome other believers. He also stops those who want to do so and puts them out of the church.

¹¹ Dear friend, do not imitate what is evil but what is good. Anyone who does what is good is from God. Anyone who does what is evil has not seen God. ¹² Demetrius is well spoken of by everyone—and even by the truth itself. We also speak well of him, and you know that our testimony is true.

¹³ I have much to write you, but I do not want to do so with pen and ink. ¹⁴ I hope to see you soon, and we will talk face to face.

Peace to you. The friends here send their greetings. Greet the friends there by name
