Why I Offer the Home Version for Free...

When I began creating printables years ago, I felt very convicted to keep a vast majority of those printables FREE in order to help other families who had very tight budgets. When I did begin creating bundles and products to sell, I still held strong to this conviction. I always try to offer the base materials of any units I create for free while also offering a bundled option with extras for those who can afford it and would like to support our family through your purchase.

God's word is powerful and teaching it to our young ones in a fun and meaningful way is priceless. It is my prayer that the free version of Raising Lil' Rock Stars blesses families who use it.

God Bless,
Carisa

A is for Attitude

Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus. Philippians 2:5-8

Jesus had a loving attitude. He loved others more than he loved himself. When Jesus lived on earth he served others and did very nice things for many people. He helped many people and shared his loving attitude with others.

One of the ways you can show love to others through your attitude is by sharing your toys with a smile! In the picture you can see the little boy sharing his teddy bear with a new friend. Is his attitude loving and kind?

Do you have a loving attitude towards others?

When a friend wants to play with you,

how can you show a loving attitude?

What do you need to ask God to help you with?

Are you struggling with your attitude at all?

Philippians 2:1-11

Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus. Philippians 2:1-11

1 If you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any fellowship with the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, 2 then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and purpose. 3 Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. 4 Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others. 5 Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: 6 Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, 7 but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. 8 And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death— even death on a cross! 9 Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, 10 that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, 11 and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Page 2 ~ It is important to know the context of the verse you are teaching, on page 2 you will find the verses surrounding the key verse so you can read ahead of time to help you be prepared. This page is for the teacher to use alone, or if you have an advanced child you could use it together. If you are using it with a child, try to use a real Bible to look it up together to get practice finding books and verses!

1. If you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any fellowship with the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, 2. then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and purpose. 3. Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. 4. Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others. 5. Your attitude should be that of Christ Jesus, 6. who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, 7. but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. 8. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death— even death on a cross! 9. Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, 10. so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, 11. and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Lesson Plan Idea

© www.1plus1plus1equals1.com

When using these verses with your own child at home here are some ideas, but please adapt to your needs!

Day 1

- Display verse {page 3} somewhere in your homeschool classroom
- Read story {page 1} and show picture either from page 3 or page 4
- Color {page 6}

Day 2

- Read story again {if child wants to} or just discuss verse and meaning
- Make bracelet {page 7}

Day 3

- Read story again {if child wants to} or just discuss verse and meaning
- Do something creative with the blank letter A page {page 5} see many ideas here

Day 4

- Read story or just discuss
- Trace letters on page 7, color also if child likes coloring, and put it in your mini book {use a 4x6 photo album, or laminate and add to a metal ring.}

Wrap Up ~ add creative letter page {pg 5}, coloring page {pg 6}, and main poster {pg 3} to a notebook so child can flip back through and have a keepsake. If you have space, take the display circle {pg 7}, or the triangular banner {pg 8} and make an ABC wall to add to each time you complete a new letter!

R is for run

Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one gets the prize? Run in such a way as to get the prize. 1 Corinthians 9:24

Have you ever ran a race? These boys are having a running race! Right now the boy in red is in the lead! If he keeps ahead, he will win the prize!

We are running a race, but it's not like the one in the picture. It's a race that doesn't really look like a running race, but it is! It is a race of faith!

What if all of the boys in the running race just started wandering away? They wandered off of the path and never got to the finish line? While we run this race of faith, we must stay focused on Jesus in our lives, just like the boys need to stay on the track and get to the finish line!

Run the race of faith to win! Stay on the path, focused on Jesus!

1 Corinthians 9:24-27 NIV

Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one gets the prize? Run in such a way as to get the prize. 1 Corinthians 9:24

The Need for Self-Discipline

²⁴ Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one gets the prize? Run in such a way as to get the prize. ²⁵ Everyone who competes in the games goes into strict training. They do it to get a crown that will not last, but we do it to get a crown that will last forever. ²⁶ Therefore I do not run like someone running aimlessly; I do not fight like a boxer beating the air. ²⁷ No, I strike a blow to my body and make it my slave so that after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified for the prize.
